World War II Military
1st to Fight: Pacific War Marines (1x60)
The experiences of the 1st Marine Division, whose decisive victory at Guadalcanal was one of the turning points of World War II.

D-Day At Pointe-du-Hoc (1x60)
A dangerous and daring D-Day mission when U.S. Army Rangers scaled the 100-foot cliffs of Pointe-du-Hoc to destroy six German cannons.

D-Day: Over Normandy (1x60)
Drone footage reveals key “D-Day” locations in France, as veterans recount their push to liberate Europe during World War II.

Day of Days: June 6, 1944 (1x60)
Four D-Day veterans share their experiences in remembrance of the Normandy landing.

Jack Taylor: The Enterprise (1x60)
The inspiring story of Jack Taylor, WWII veteran and founder of Enterprise Rent-a-Car. NEW!

Grandpa's War Story Goes Viral (1x60)
An Alaskan teenager uses social media to generate interest in his grandfather's remarkable World War II service and military career. Narrated by Liev Schreiber.

Journey Home to the USS Arizona (1x60)
The story of sailor Raymond Haerry Sr., his heroic actions during the Japanese attack at Pearl Harbor, and the remarkable way the Navy honored his service.

Merrill's Marauders (1x60)
Tells the fascinating story of a group of World War II soldiers known as “Merrill’s Marauders” who were one of the most heroic and least known combat units to serve in the war.

The Portillo Expedition: Mystery on Bougainville Island (1x90)
This film examines the death of the man responsible for the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Rommel: The Soldier, The Son and Hitler (1x60)
Explore the military career and personal life of Germany’s most famous WWII commander, Field Marshal Erwin Rommel, through the perspective of his son.

The Seabees on Iwo Jima (1x60)
How US Navy Battalions built key airfields and fought in the Pacific islands during WWII. NEW!

Shanghai 1937: Where World War II Began (1x60)
This revealing film gives a new historical perspective that suggests the Battle of Shanghai in 1937 was the first battle of World War II.

Surrender on The USS Missouri (1x96)
Witnesses to Japan's surrender during World War II recount that historic day and the famous battleship on which the ceremony took place.

Survivors of Malmedy: December 1944 (1x60)
Survivors tell of the World War II massacre when 84 American soldiers were gunned down by German SS in Belgium during the opening days of the famous “Battle of the Bulge.”

The Tuskegee Airmen: Return to Ramitelli (1x60)
Story of legendary Black military pilots who broke stereotypes and helped win World War II. NEW!

Unsettled History: America, China, and the Doolittle Tokyo Raid (1x60)
The daring Doolittle Raid on Tokyo during WWII is retold from American and Chinese perspectives.

World War II Collection (8x60 and 2x90)
A group of award winning documentaries about the sacrifices and achievements of the 16 million Americans who served in WWII.

Be sure to check out our one-sheet of War Up-Close documentaries with personal stories spanning WWI to the Vietnam War.